Directions: From Cabool, MO, go south on Hwy 181 to Hwy 76 and turn left onto Hwy 76/181. Go 4 miles to Hwy 181 south. Go 12 miles to Hwy AA on right, turn right and go 2.5 miles to Ranch on right. Watch for pipe fence on right as road curves to the left. Ranch gate is on the right and in the driveway, take the left fork to the campsite. From Willow Springs & West Plains, at the 60-63 junction west take second Willow Springs exit, turn left onto 76 E, turn left on 181 S to Hwy AA, turn right 2.5 miles to Ranch.

Trail: Combination of forest trails, logging trails and gravel roads. The trail substrate is rock, gravel, and pasture. Shoes or boots are recommended. Some terrain will be steep and rocky.

Camping: Electric/water hookups or bunk rooms are $35. Cabins are available but not close to stalls. Sites have been reserved but contact NFRR directly to book at North Fork River Ranch services. There is a very nice shower house and eating room with picnic tables where ride briefings will be held. Contact Darrin if you have questions: 417-257-4953 nfranch.info/services

Stabling: Everyone will have a covered stall; stall fee is $7/night. Stalls are required. Designated manure dumping areas.

Ride Notes: A current negative Coggins Certificate is required on all horses. A current Health Certificate (within 30 days of this event) is required on all out-of-state horses. Dogs are not allowed in management, check-in and briefings areas and must be leashed at all times per our event insurance policy and campground rules.

Ride Details: Late arrivals should make arrangements with ride management.

A schedule will be posted for ride brief and ride out times.

A & B1 Rides: Check-in begins with Ride Secretary at 2pm on Friday

B1 LeD Saturday and B2 LeD Sunday: Check-in begins with Ride Secretary 9am each day

Meals: Potluck dinner Saturday night, management will provide the meat. Bring your own plates and drinks. Workers will be fed breakfast, lunch and dinner on Saturday and breakfast and lunch on Sunday.
